

XM radio is my first choice for news and information when traveling. I want to be able to listen to traffic, weather and local news that might affect me. There is no reason that satellite radio should be prevented from broadcasting these items